2002-2009

I'm a journalist. As editor and co-owner of The Good Life magazine (which folded in January 2009) I wrote numerous stories about the environment and Barton Springs. The foremost of those was titled "The Life and Death of Barton Springs," published in the July 2002 edition of The Good Life.

My efforts had been to document what happened and it's doubtful they had much impact on subsequent events.
